Lady Jacket Volleyball Blog

October 3, 2016

This week was another jam-packed week for the Lady Jacket volleyball team (when don't I say that?!). Three matches a week (2-1), really takes it out of you, if you can imagine. We also ended the week with a 33-hour trip to Kentucky Wesleyan and Trevecca Nazarene, in which we spent about 10½ of that driving! Phew! Needless to say we are thankful for the wonderful new Cedarville buses, 2 Wi-Fi box connectors so all of us could get homework done, and special treats to keep our stomachs happy courtesy of the Cardwell's (Kristin Cardwell's parents).

It was a full weekend for sure, but we didn't come out with the two wins that we were hoping for. We were able to come out with a win against KWC in three sets which gave us some confidence back after a tough loss to Northern Michigan the week before. The KWC match was positive for us. We were able to serve aggressively and move the ball a lot around the front row because our serve receive was doing their job well! It was a really fun match in front of a great KWC crowd. Even better, every single person on our roster made an appearance in the match! That doesn't happen very often, so the team felt happy and relieved we could all contribute to our first G-MAC win of the year. After the game, we quickly packed up and went to get some food at Penn Station before we drove another hour to Bowling Green, Kentucky for the night.

Sadly, we had a pretty terrible experience getting our food! We waited about an hour for our subs we ordered. I was proud of the team for staying patient even though it's tough to wait for food, especially with this team! We love to eat! Anyway, we finally got our food and headed to the hotel where we crashed to get some rest for our second G-MAC contest of the year against Trevecca.

We all were well rested Saturday morning. We also had our weekly team devotions and team scouting session at the hotel before we left for another hour drive to our match (I'm telling you the driving is endless!) Team devotions is one of my favorite times of the week. Even though we basically live life together, sometimes it's hard to find time to sit and listen to each other in our struggles and in what the Lord is teaching us. I was very full of joy and contentment just listening to my team share, learn, and pray together.

Soon we arrived at Trevecca Nazarene in beautiful Nashville, Tennessee. As a team, we were pretty pumped and focused to play this team which knocked us out of a trip to the NCAA tournament last year. As the match got underway we really struggled in many areas. We still were not going to give up even when we were down 2 sets to 0. That's one thing this team has that other teams I've been on didn't have. Fight and endurance. Even though it looked dim, we pushed the improved Trevecca team to their limits in the third set to end up losing the set and the match 28-26 and 3-0. Not really the way we imagined this game going. Unfortunately, you can't change the score after it's over and now it's time to go back to work this week and wipe away all of our frustrations with that game.

With another three-game week ahead (all G-MAC contests), we must come together even stronger and better. After the Trevecca match we prayed together for this purpose and to make sure that we as a team keep the main thing, that is Christ, the main thing. That's what we are all about. This week we remember our team verse.

I Corinthians 9:24-25

Do you not know that in a race all the runners run, but only one receives the prize? So run that you may obtain it. Every athlete exercises self-control in all things. They do it to receive a perishable wreath, but we an imperishable.

Have a blessed fall week!

"We Back the Jackets!"

Tonight's Match

The Cedarville University women's volleyball team hosts the Ohio Valley University Fighting Scots in a Great Midwest Athletic Conference (G-MAC) match tonight in the Callan Athletic Center. It is also the Annual White Out Night!

Cedarville, under the direction of ninth-year Head Coach Doug Walters (187-125), enters tonight's action with an 11-4 (1-1 G-MAC) record. The squad posted a 3-0 win at Kentucky Wesleyan on Friday night and dropped a 3-0 decision at Trevecca on Saturday afternoon.

Ohio Valley brings a 4-15 overall record including 0-2 in the G-MAC into tonight's contest versus Cedarville. The Fighting Scots dropped their league-openers at Trevecca and Kentucky Wesleyan this past weekend.

Leading the 2016 Lady Jacket offensive attack is Gabby Olson. The 6-4 junior middle hitter and transfer from Clarion paces the squad with 163 kills and 51 blocks.

Outside hitter Abby Shelton, the 2015 G-MAC Co-Player of the Year, is second on the team with 145 kills and third in digs with 135.

Senior libero Angela Becker leads the back row with 260 digs (4.9/set) and is sixth all-time at CU with 1,949 digs.

Junior setter Kristin Cardwell has recorded 519 assists (9.8/set) and is tied with a third-best 14 service aces.

Ohio Valley is led by Head Coach Paul Jacoby who is in his 21st year at the helm of the program.

Alyx Henry, a 5-5 senior outside hitter, leads the team with 283 kills and 18 service aces. The 2015 G-MAC First Teamer also has 141 digs and 16 blocks.

Senior setter Emily Ohrn has handed out 555 assists while posting a second-best 159 digs. Rookie middle hitter Allie Bailey leads the team with eight solo blocks and 21 total blocks.

CU leads the all-time series between the two schools with a 9-1 advantage. Ohio Valley won the only meeting last year - a 3-1 verdict on October 24 in Vienna, West Virginia.
